FITCHBURG MANAGER SAYS CANAVAN WILL PITCH FOR HIM OR IS CANNED

The "Elusive Canavan" will pitch for Fitchburg against the local Kacey team on Sunday or he will be released forcibly arfi unconditionally from the fast Fitchburg Profs according to a telegram received by Manager O'Leary of the local team from Jack Kiarnan manager of the Fitchburg club. If Canavan throws the Fitchburg lob over his shoulder he will be toosing away a two-game a week lob for a one game a week lob for a one game a week lob for a one game a week lob. As Hughle looks long and earnestly at a dollar it doesn't seem reasonable to local fasts that he will furn down Fitchburg in preference to Willimantic although Jack McQuillan says he will positively appear at the Thread City on Bunday.

Manager O'Leary has sent in the following letter in answer to Manager McQuillan's "Fidification letter" of Friday:

GAME FROM ATHLETICS

Boston. Sept. 8.—Boeton made four hits off Hasty today, but defeated Philadelphia I to 1. The visitor's run came in the first after J. Harris two hase muff. B. Millers lange and swill pitch. W. Collins single in the sixth, followed by two errors by Galloway gave Boeton a run and the nor J. Harris double a fielder's choice play, and O'Rourke's single. Score: Philadelphia I to 1. Summable 1. Evidently from the foregoing tele-gram some club. If I may use the term, is going to get "gyped" out of his appearance. In view of the fact that Fitchburg gives Canavan two games a week and has the best semi-pro team in New England behind him while Willimantic can give only him while Williaminic can give only one game a week and supports him with only a mediocre team, the public thoroughly acquainted with his gold-digging tactics, can judge for them-selves which club he is the most likely to appear with.

I might say that I appreviate the riendliness expressed by the Willimantic manager and reciprocate the same and hope that the earlier part my letter will make it clear to and will advertise the appearance of players guaranteed to me by visit-ing club managers. Trusting that he will make an effort to have my let-ier given the same publicity in the Willimantic papers as his received in the Norwich Bulletin.

Yours truly WILLIAM O'LEARY

As can be seen from Manager O' Leary's letter it is certain that Can avan either pitches for Fitchburg of he is through with that team. If the Elisive Canavan' should decide to throw over Fitchburg it is certain hat Kiernan will bring a pitcher her hat is equally as good as Canavar and the fans will be assured of a good battle. The lineups for the Sun-iay game will be:

Fitchburg-Merrick, of Hunnefield, sa McKay, of Davidson, Powers, lf McElwee, 15 Lee, If Duval, 2b Sank, 3b Clabby, rf 7 7 p Gaw, p Note:- Up to press time this morn ing no other teams in New England TIGERS PULL BROWNS co. The score was 2-6, 5-3, 2-6, 5-3, 6-4. William T. Tilden, 2nd, the titlesolder had little difficulty in disposing of Alex D. Thaysr, of Philadelphia.

Ideraid L. Patterson, the Australian who won the Wimbledon, England, commanded the Wimbledon, England, commanded the title of world champion and even less trouble in winning from tharles C. Hubbell, of Yonkers, William M. Johnston, of San Francisco, one of Tilden's most dangerous rirais for the Little, conquered the vetrain Craig Biddle, of Philadelphia, in a match which developed pretty tennis at times but the result of which was never in doubt.

TWO STRAIGHT FROM INDIANS Chicago, Sept. 8—Chicago made it two straight from Cleveland today winning 7 to 2. Mostil's triple, following singles by Collins and Sheely, tied the two run lead of the visitors, which they made on three sharp singles. Mostil then stole home putting the locals in front and they were never headed again as Leverette tightened up and pitched air-tight ball by bundhing hits behind wabbly support. Chicago scored its other runs. Score:

The Country Club, Brooklyn. Mass. Sept. 3—GBy the A. P.)—Jesse Sweetser, of New York, Metropolitan champion, and Charles E. "Chick" Evans of Chicago best of the west, will meet tomorrow to decide the national amateur golf championship for 1832. They advanced to the final round of the little today in semi-final matches that were marked by their mastery both of the mechanics of play and of the human element represented by opponents of high rank.

"Bobby Jones of Atlanta, champion, of the south, went down seven heles short of the 36 hole distance before the sweeping and record-breaking strokes of Sweetser. The golfing artistry of "Chick" Evans, which has brought him two national amateur and one national open titles. The championship of France and leadership in the west, was exemplified anew at the expense of little Rudy Knepper, his fellow westerner from Sloux City. This was the greater defeat. It up and 2 to play, but the scori of 3 un 7 to play by which Jones fill on his fifth national amateur chaphionship wayside was the day's susprise.

It came, however, as no juke. The Metropolitan champion, a fundent at Yale and former inter-collegiate champlon, played as none of the world's leading amateurs, competitors in this tourney, when he started, have played during the past week. Birdies even an eagle, perched on his clubs in the forenoon round of 18 holes, that was finished in 69 strokes, two under par, his southern supported to the Metropolitan champion, and the perfectly to the green and then perfectly to the green and then perfectly to the cup. Moosup, Taftville, Norwich and Baltic, several new contestants names have been received that ought to make the race a real thriller. The feature event of the afternoon looms up in the men's relay. The Ashland club with Manager Hal Chase is sending up one of the fastest teams that ever represented that institution. Plainfield, always a bitter rival, will lead a banner team into the field. Both sides have already claimed a victory. The betting's about even. The fans are eagerly awaiting the match. Manager Chase of Ashland isn't sure just what his lineup will be, but a couple of dark horses are expected to New London and Baltic will play a postponed Eastern Connecticut league game at Sayles field in Baltic on Sunday. New London defeated the Baltic team at New London on last Sunday and the Baltic club is out to reverse the decision. New London has a chance of wine to the content of the following: Alexander, W.
